PRODUCER

Cossetti is a family-run winery and winemaker Clementina, is now the fourth generation of winemakers in the Piedmont region. Cossetti follows sustainable viticulture to highlight the unique terroir across their estate. Clementina's philosophy is based on traditional winemaking, where she strives to capture a pure expression of the land her family has been cultivating for over 125 years. Cossetti produces obscure Piedmontese varieties such as Albarossa, Cortese and Dolcetto, and is an undervalued gem amongst a very well known wine region.

VITICULTURE + VINIFICATION

A plot of 2.5 hectares planted around the Cossetti winery in Castelnuovo Belbo. The soil is marine sediment and rich in minerals, which gives the wine finesse, minerality, and longevity. Fermentation in temperature controlled steel vats. Devatting and racking to enhance the fruit expression of Barbera. No malolactic fermentation.

TASTING NOTE

Ruby-red colour with garnet undertones. Intense, persistent aroma with hints of cherry. Full bodied, dry and well balanced flavour. Excellent with traditional entrées, white and red meats and medium aged cheeses.
