PRODUCER

Porongurup might be off-the-beaten-track, but it's one of Western Australia's hidden gems. It's here, just east of Mount Barker, that Guy Lyons makes stellar cool-climate wines. Fruit is sourced from his family's Springview vineyard, where vines were planted on ancient lateritic gravels in 1985. The vineyard faces the ocean and the grapes enjoy a long ripening season in what is otherwise a Mediterranean climate. Riesling is the hit here, so it's no surprise that Guy makes an exquisite version, along with an exhilarating oak-aged Chardonnay; both wines adorned with gorgeous Bella Kelly art.

VITICULTURE + VINIFICATION

TASTING NOTE

Crisp, varietally faithful Grüner Veltliner from the relatively cool-climate Porongurup sub-region of Western Australia. Riesling thrives here so good portents for Grüner. Clean, bright fruit, touch of white pepper, very crisp and finishes refreshing.
