PRODUCER

Kewin – or Kéké to his friends – has Beaujolais in his blood. Son of Georges Descombes, scion of the fêted “Gang of Four”, and half-brother to correspondingly precocious Damien Coquelet, it was almost inevitable that Kéké would follow a similar path. He works six hectares of certified organic vineyards in Morgon and his wines have all the pretty poise, acid and elegance you’d expect from this heritage, and a refinement, structure and confidence that belies his age. Still just in his twenties, Kéké is unambiguously one of the region’s brightest young talents.

VITICULTURE + VINIFICATION

From vineyards more than 80-years-old around Kewin's home and winery in a village called Vermont in the north-west of Morgon appellation. A relatively high altitude and cool area. Fermentation is spontaneous, from ambient natural yeasts, in old oak foudres. Possible natural malo takes place - not inoculated. Fermentation is old oak vats - no new oak used for flavour characteristics.

TASTING NOTE

A wine that is bursting with pure red fruits, fresh acidity, and an earthy quality; dark chocolate and coffee. A medium-bodied wine that has years to give.
