PRODUCER

For the last 15 years, winemaker Xavier Vignon has become internationally known for being the winemaker of several of the best domains in the Rhône. Known as a 'master blender', he creates and blends Rhône wines with different vintages and appellations from around the Languedoc. Xavier sources fruit from vineyards which are only sustainably managed, producing fruit of the highest quality. These wines are non-vintage, made from the highest quality fruit sourced from across the region and vinified in 2007, 2009 and 2010, some of the best vintages in Southern France.

VITICULTURE + VINIFICATION

Fruit selected from the best plots from across the Rhône and Languedoc. Hand harvesting, destemming and sorting. Cold maceration and winemaking in stainless steel only. In Stainless Steel Tanks post cold maceration. No malolactic fermentation. None.

TASTING NOTE

The nose offers notes of pepper, red fruits, a lot of greed, followed by floral notes including violets. On the palate the wine is rich, fresh and mineral.
